

What you'll study

Students can choose from any of the topics available for the FHS in Jurisprudence (the undergraduate law degree), including electives. Not all subjects will necessarily be taught by St Anne's tutors, but St Anne's has well known expertise in Human Rights, Medical Law, Tort and Contract, and public law subjects including Constitutional Law, Administrative Law and Public International Law

Why study Law at St Anne's?

The tutors at St Anne's are well-known authorities in their subjects, and the College has a vibrant law community, including the Geldart Law Society. The school is small, with a close-knit but welcoming group of students. Tutors are known for their intellectually stimulating tutorials. The school also holds a series of social events to which all students are invited.

How you'll be taught

- Lectures Typically 4 hours per week per subject.
- Tutorials One full subject (8 hours) and one half-subject (4 hours) per term.

You can take this course for

The Full Academic Year	Yes
Hilary and Trinity terms only (January – June)	Yes
Michaelmas term only (October – December)	Yes

Famous St Anne's alums who read law include:

- Presiley Baxendale (1969), lawyer, Queen's Counsel, leading mediator, and Joint Head of Blackstone Chambers 1998-2004
- Belinda Bucknall (1969), lawyer, Queen's Counsel specialising in international commercial and shipping law
- Pepita Capriolo (1976), lawyer, judge of the Quebec Superior Court in Montréal, Canada
- Ruth Deech (Fraenkel, 1962), academic and peer, Fellow in Law (1970-91), and Principal (1991-2004), St Anne's College, Oxford, she chaired the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority (1994-2002), was a governor of the BBC (2002-06), and appointed the first Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education in 2004. From 2009-2014, she chaired the Bar Standards Board, and she was created a life peer, Baroness Deech of Cumnor, in 2005.
- Jo Delahunty (1982), lawyer, Queen's Counsel specialising in care proceedings and child protection issues. She was recommended as a Leading Silk in Chambers and Partners 2011
- Sam Grodzinski (1986), lawyer, Queen's Counsel specialising in public law and human rights, and commercial law
- Jean Southworth (1947), lawyer, Queen's Counsel, and Recorder of the Crown Court, 1973-93. Elected an Honorary Fellow in 2004
- Heather Swindells (1968), lawyer, Queen's Counsel specialising in family law, and a Circuit Judge

For further information on this subject, please see our website:

www.st-annes.ox.ac.uk/prospective/visiting-students.

St Anne's College
University of Oxford

www.st-annes.ox.ac.uk

 @StAnnesCollege

 @StAnnesCollege