

Hannah for LGBTQ+ Rep !!

Hi, my name is Hannah, my pronouns are they/them, and I'm a first-year hispol student.

When I first arrived in Oxford, I was thrilled to discover how lively and diverse the LGBTQ+ community is here! It was a bit of a change of pace seeing as the town I live in has a median age of 43, but I was immediately made to feel right at home. I'm running for LGBTQ+ rep because I want to make sure that St Anne's continues to give a warm welcome to LGBTQ+ freshers like myself and because I want to help build a community here that consists of freshers, finalists and everyone in between :)

My Aims

★ To introduce college social activities

It can be a bit of a trek to whatever events the soc is hosting so I thought it would be nice to have LGBTQ+ welfare teas and trips to G&Ds a little closer to home.

★ To connect with the wider university LGBTQ+ community

LGBTQ+ crewdates with other colleges are fantastic ways to meet other members of the community in Oxford. I want to host even more next year perhaps for two or three!!!

★ To continue hosting evening events

The gay anthems karaoke and film screenings set up by Toby and Grace this year were iconic, and I fully intend to keep the rave alive.

★ To introduce subsidised Tuesday drinks

For the sake of honesty, I nicked this idea off the Sommerville JCR but who doesn't love cheap (maybe even free...) drinks. These will

Why Me?

★ Experience

I ran pride week as part of my role in the head girl team at my old school, during which I was able to raise nearly £800 for the Albert Kennedy Trust.

★ I'm nonbinary, AMA

For a lot of people, I'm the first nonbinary, or even trans, person they've ever met and whilst I have no time for bad faith arguments, I'm happy to answer genuine questions.

★ Approachability

I am 5'4 and mildly overweight with a dad's sense of humour. All these things make me approachable to anyone who has suggestions, concerns or just wants a chat.

★ Visuals

I am currently growing a mullet, which would make me a good representative as it is very gay trim.
