

Hey! My name is Adam, my pronouns are he/him and I'm a first-year music student running for LGBTQ+ rep.

I spend most of my time wondering what a music degree actually involves, mystery shopping and baking (I've been told my brownies are pretty good).

My aims:

Next year should allow us the opportunity to have social events in person. Although we've missed out on a lot this year, I'll make sure we can:

- Have as many social events as possible to make up for lost time and allow LGBTQ+ students to meet each other.
 - Host events in conjunction with the uni LGBTQ+ Soc so we can socialize with other colleges.
 - I'll continue Hannah's quest to get subsidized Tuesday drinks (free drinks??!)
 - Make all toilets in college gender inclusive (looking at you Hartland house...)
 - Work with BAME and Inclusivity Reps to take an intersectional approach to welfare and inclusivity.
 - Establish LGBTQ+ specific welfare resources
 - Create a Queer Culture Club
- Being queer is about so much more than sexual preference so it would be great to have a space to explore and discuss this

Why me?

Self-appointed leader of 58/60 Woodstock so have leadership experience.

Worked in a community mental health team so know how to have a good chat

I like to think I've got good energy and am low-key funny
