

Would you like to explore fascinating subjects with university researchers, experience academic and social life at Oxford University, receive expert advice on how to apply and be supported throughout the process?

Aim for Oxford is a free-of-charge programme for Year 12 students attending state schools in the North East of England, organised by Oxford for North East; Christ Church, Trinity and St Anne's Colleges, Oxford.

Participants will attend academic enrichment, information and guidance sessions in the region across four Saturdays between January and April 2022, followed by a four-night summer school at Oxford University (21st-25th August 2023). Participants who decide to make applications to Oxford will then progress to the Year 13 programme (September 2023 onwards) and receive ongoing support.

To make a successful application:

- Your GCSE results should show strong academic potential (preference for grades 7/ 8/ 9/ A/ A*, within the context of your school)

We will also take into account other criteria, including if at least one of the following applies to you:

- Your parents did not go to university
- Your POLAR postcode score is 1 or 2 (check at <https://bit.ly/2qZNh4l>)
- Your ACORN postcode score is 4 or 5 (check at <https://acorn.caci.co.uk/>)
- You have been eligible for free school meals
- You are from an ethnic minority background which is underrepresented at Oxford (including students with Black African, Black Caribbean, Bangladeshi or Pakistani heritage)
- You have been, or currently are, in care
- You are a young carer
