

VOTE AYESHA FOR VICE PRESIDENT

KAMALA HARRIS 2.0 - STILL BROWN. STILL
FEMALE. BUT REALLY,
REALLY NOT A COP

WHO AYESHA?

Hi! I'm a first year PPE student (she/her) but I do not want to be PM thanks for asking though. I live in Kent, but I've spent most of my life in London and Mumbai.

My hobbies include chatting about art and music no one cares about, writing essays in an hour and feeding myself solely potato waffles and Maggi noodles.

My aims as Vice President include:

- Acting as an unbiased liason between the President, the JCR, and the rest of the Anne's community to ensure the democratic process runs as smoothly and inclusively as possible.
- Propose to utilise the JCR budget in ways that benefit the students, especially making the Danson Room a place undergraduates can use more such as by investing in better decor, new sofas and possibly a vending machine.

WHAT AYESHA?

- Ensure there is an anonymous space for complaints and suggestions to the JCR that are regularly discussed by the committee.
- Run a Fresher's week that makes freshers feel as welcome as possible, regardless of their interests and backgrounds.

WHY AYESHA?

I've been foreign for most of life so I understand what it feels like to not feel included. As a result, I care deeply about ensuring that everyone's voices being heard and responding effectively to any criticisms or suggestions that may face the JCR.

I have experience in leadership positions, being prefect for 2 years, head editor of school publications for 7 years across two different schools, and debate captain.

I really do not like being centre of attention, so I will be dedicated to supporting the new President in enacting their vision while acting as an unbiased liason

My colleague and I organised a large 3 day conference which involved liasing with venues and utilising budget effectively in order to deliver a good experience to 200 people. I would like to apply this experience to efficiently allocating JCR budget and assisting logistically with JCR, Freshers and Entz events.
