Gaspard

For JCR Treasurer!

Hi! I'm Gaspard (he/him), a first year from France studying History & German. When I'm not procrastinating essays or complaining about them, I'm usually talking about my cat or music no one cares about. My hobbies include cooking, drinking way too much coffee, and occasionally going on runs. I am this year's Pink Week college rep, and also enjoy volunteering for food banks and tutoring students from disadvantaged backgrounds.
