The College

One of the largest Colleges in the University of Oxford, with around 770 students, St Anne's is known for being down-to earth, ambitious, outward facing and collaborative. We aspire to understand the world and change it for the better.

Established in 1879 to enable women from all backgrounds to access an Oxford education, the College is committed to securing our legacy and future by being a diverse and inclusive community that is the home of choice for the brightest and most ambitious from all backgrounds, including those who may think that Oxford is not for people like them.

Our community includes undergraduate and graduate students, academics involved in world leading research and teaching, and staff from a wide range of professional backgrounds. Helen King, our Principal since 2017, is a graduate of St Anne's who took on the role after a thirty-year career in policing, including as an Assistant Commissioner in the Metropolitan Police.

As a Charity and one of the more modern Colleges, our finances depend upon a diverse range of income streams including a successful vacation conference business and the generosity of our worldwide network of committed alumnae and donors.
