

Study Abroad partners

We welcome undergraduates from global institutions to our Visiting Students Programme.

If you attend one of the following schools, please consult with your Study Abroad Office:

- American University
- Brown University
- Bryn Mawr College
- Bucerius Law School
- Colby College
- Columbia University
- Columbus State University
- Cornell University
- The George Washington University
- Goucher College
- Harvard University
- Johns Hopkins University
- Mount Holyoke College
- Princeton University
- Swarthmore College
- University of Virginia – Jefferson Scholars
- Vassar College
- Wellesley College
- Wheaton College
- Yale University

If you attend a US institution that is not listed above you could consider applying through either The College of Global Studies at Arcadia University or the Institute for Study Abroad \(Butler University\).

You may also speak with your study abroad office about submitting an independent application. Your US home institution does not need to have a partnership with St Anne's College, Arcadia or IFSA for you to apply.

If you are applying from China you could consider applying through UniHive Education, the Oxford Prospects Programme, or you may consider applying as an independent applicant.

All applicants are required to have the permission of their home institution to apply and need to be studying towards an accredited degree. Postgraduate students can apply to the Visiting Students Programme but will follow Oxford's undergraduate curriculum.

Please email visiting.students@st-annes.ox.ac.uk if you have any questions.
